Rev. Dr. A. M. Hill,
Yarmouth, N.S.

My dear Dr. Hill:

I have just received a night letter from yourself and Principal Keirsen with regard to C. M. Crowell and I have consulted the Registrar about the matter. Unfortunately his standing is a good deal lower than what we require for entrance in the Faculty of Applied Science and Architecture. He is now taking supplemental examinations to meet if possible these deficiencies, but even if he is successful in these there is I am afraid some doubt as to whether he has the necessary standard. Of course I should like to oblige you and Principal Keirsen but the entrance to the University is determined by standards which are administered by a committee of the Senate and every year we have a great many requests from all over the Dominion to make exceptions. What the Committee tries to keep in view is justice to all and particularly to the student, for we know by sad experience that it is not a kindness to a young fellow to allow him to enter upon a difficult course if he is unprepared for it. It is better for him in the long run to take another year at school and come up ready for the work that awaits him. I do not need, however, to assure you that I will keep the matter in mind and if it is at all possible to meet your request I will advise the committee to do so, though as I say the decision does not finally rest with me.

On the "Calgarian" we met a lady and gentleman, whose names I did not get, who came from Yarmouth. They said that they knew you and I asked them to give you my kind regards. I am,
Yours sincerely,

Rev. Dr. A. M. Hill,

Yarmouth, N.S.

My dear Dr. Hill:

Last night at the Faculty of Medicine it was recommended that Charles Fuller be allowed to register in the third year of the Faculty of Medicine, but with two subjects to be completed that had not been done.

I am glad that men are turning this way. It is difficult, however, to make exceptions, because we can hardly do more for those outside the Province than for those within, yet they are welcome when they once come, and we shall do our best for them.

If you ask him to call upon us when he comes to Toronto I shall be glad to see him and get to know him. Tell him to bring his brother with him who is coming to the Veterinary College. I shall be glad to hear from you at any time.

Yours sincerely,

President.
